

Churchill Says Britain Should Have Accepted Russian Offer for Assistance Pact in 1939

NEW YORK, April 29 (AP)—Winston Churchill says in his war memoirs that if Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain had accepted a Russian offer of a Soviet-British-French mutual assistance agreement in 1939 history might have taken a different course.

His memoirs are being published in the United States by Life magazine and the New York Times. Today's installment describing events in 1939 up to Britain's entry into the war is titled Part III of "The Gathering Storm," the first five volumes of the British wartime prime minister's war memoirs.

Churchill describes how Russia proposed on April 16, 1939, through its foreign minister, Litvinov, that Great Britain, France and the USSR create a united front of mutual assistance. Britain and France should have accepted the Russian offer, he says, and determined how it could be effective peace, Churchill says, however, that the motives which inspired him cannot be impugned and that he acted with the highest degree of moral courage.

BRITAIN WAS badly prepared for war, he says. There were barely 100 anti-aircraft guns to protect London.

On a visit to the French frontier in Aug., 1939, Churchill was impressed by the complete acceptance of the defensive which obsessed the French.

He says the French and the English had allowed themselves to get into a physical and psychological condition where they were unable to act on the truthful assumption that only 42 half-trained and half-equipped German divisions guarded their frontier from the north sea to Switzerland.

After the Germans invaded Poland Churchill says he felt a serenity and a thrill in the knowledge that England, though ill-prepared, would respond fearlessly to the call of honor.

Student Takes Life In 'Cause of Science'

CHICAGO, April 29 (AP)—Friends and relatives of a 20-year-old pre-medical student found dead expressed the view today he died in the cause of science.

The youth was Arnold F. Baehr of Flint, Mich. A brother, Ernest, of Flint, said Arnold worked with the Austrian underground during the war. An inquest was continued to May 28, pending analysis by a coroner's physician.

Near Baehr's body yesterday in a University of Chicago dormitory, police found an unsigned note saying:

"Am performing a physiological experiment upon myself. In case it should have an unfortunate outcome: 28 grains of chloral hydrate (the largest dose from which recovery ever has been reported) were taken at approximately 10 p. m., April 27. In case I should not recover (which I do not hope) my wish is that my body be used as material for an anatomy class at the University of Chicago medical school."

Baehr's brother, and his roommate, Herbert Halbrecht, said they knew of no reason why he might wish to take his life. Both said he was an "A" student and had every reason to live.

Rotary Club Feted By Norco Students; Musicales Presented

For the third consecutive year the Rotary club was the guest of the pupils of North Coventry High school for dinner and a replay of the Spring musicale.

The entire program was conducted in the gymnasium, decorated with a Mexican motif.

The affair began with dinner, cooked and served by girls of the school. Vocational department girls did the cooking and those of the Academic department served the Rotarians.

During the meal the 15-piece band played four numbers.

The real musical presentation got under way after dinner. The program was a repeat, with a few deletions, of the third annual musicale the youngsters staged the past week. In all, 164 participated in producing entertainment and the meal.

SIMILAR TO THE past week's show, the music was put on with an artistic background. Mrs. Sherman Burbank, art teacher, arranged it.

Verna Orrs, music teacher, led the Girls Glee club which sang the finale.

Hostesses at the tables were Nadine Davidheiser, Ruth V. Essick, Barbara Collins, Adeline Kratz, Marjorie Kissing, LaVerne Anderson, Nancy Meyer, Betty Meyer and Agnes Torak.

Waitresses were Shirley Hall, Mildred Torak, Marjorie Berricker, Ann Marie Semet, Thelma Creasy, Rena Tiernan, Gloria Strum, Beverly Spohn, Edith Richards, Jo Ann Deibler, Carolyn Gray, Christine Swavely, Joan Buckwalter, Jane Shaner, Janet Baker, Lillian Wilson, Catherine Luft, Shirley Lightcap, Joyce Overholzer, Marilyn Rothenberger, Dawn McMullen, Doris Care and Mary McGowan.

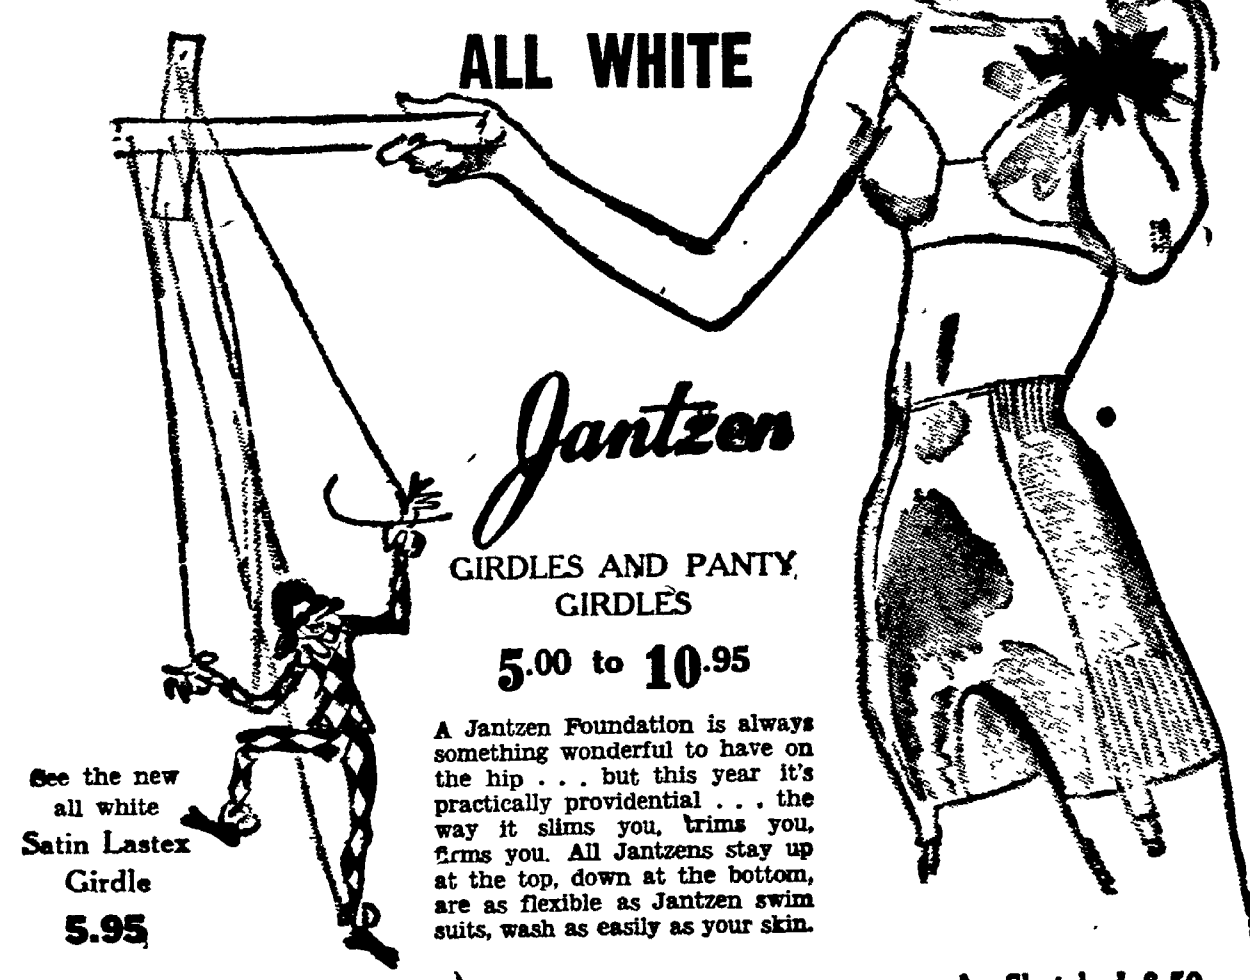

Guests present were George W. Copeland and Miller C. Long, members of the school board; Clyde T. Saylor, superintendent of schools for Chester county; George B. Swinehart, supervising principal of Boyertown High school, and Guldin G. Yoder, assistant supervising principal of Boyertown High school.

Tank Runs Wild to Crush Automobile

A 1941 sedan was crushed when a 36-ton General Sherman tank went out of control on a Fort Collins, Colo., street. The tank had been used in an ROTC show at Colorado A. and M. college and was being driven by National Guard officers when it went berserk. No one was in the automobile.

Man to Be Tried On Liquor Charge

The case of Vincent Grimm Sr., 62, of 1115 Sembling avenue, for violation of Liquor Control act will be one of four cases of local men heard in the May session Criminal Court in Norristown before Judges Harold G. Knight, George C. Corson and William F. Dannehower starting Monday.

Grimm was indicted after an explosion and fire in the basement of his home on Jan. 16 revealed what is alleged to have been a still.

Agents of the State Liquor Control board investigated and placed the charge.

Also listed for the session are George P. Kolvek and Morris J. Kurnal, both of Stowe, rape; Roland Johnson, Star route, burglary and larceny, and Bernard McLaughlin, 24, of 232 South street, statutory rape.

Reading Woman Charges 'Fraud' in Suit For Decree; Pair Wed in Elkton in 1932

READING, April 29 — A Reading woman today filed a suit for divorce against a Pottstown man charging that he "defrauded" her by not revealing until after their marriage that he was a mental patient.

Mrs. Mary J. Brunner stated in the suit against her husband, John W. of West High street, she first knew of his condition 60 days after their elopement marriage in Elkton, Md., in 1932 when he was seized with a violent attack.

From that time until the past Nov. 15 he has been a patient in the Norristown State hospital. He was released in the custody of his parents.

MRS. BRUNNER'S attorney, Russell L. Miller, Reading, who filed, Polish Catholic church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Reading.

said that interment in a State mental hospital for ten years or more qualifies a patient as an incurable.

The suit said, in part, that the husband "Knowingly, fraudulently and with intent to deceive and mislead the libellant (Mrs. Brunner) failed to disclose to her that he was afflicted with a severe and chronic mental disorder before and at the time of marriage."

The case was expected to come to court in two or three weeks.

It is in great dangers that we see great courage.—Regnard.

Score One for Housewives

POTTSTOWN housewives yesterday hailed the first oleomargarine major victory in 62 years. It came when the House of Representatives in Washington took the first step toward canceling the unfair taxes against oleo by voting 260 to 106 to repeal all Federal margarine taxes.

All those 62 years the dairy bloc had been able to cause discrimination against a food as wholesome as butter and one which should be much cheaper.

There are several other hurdles, including a vote in the Senate, before oleo can operate in a free market. But these can be surmounted.

Meanwhile, score one for the housewives' bloc.

Save the Forests

THIS Spring, the State Foresters and the Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture are conducting a nationwide program to reduce forest fire losses. And that campaign can be a success only if the public is made aware of the problem and how to deal with it.

Fortunately, some progress has been made in dealing with the forest fire menace. In prewar years, we averaged 210,000 fires in our forests, woods and range lands. Since the war, the number has dropped, and was 172,000 in 1946. But no one should accept these statistics as an indication the waste is unimportant.

Last year, forest fires burned enough trees of saw-lumber size to build 86,000 five-room homes; and enough pole sized trees to provide 12-month supply of newsprint for every newspaper in this country.

What causes forest fires? The experts have the answer to that, based on years of correlated experience. Only one in a hundred is the result of explosions, sparks from machinery, etc. A very few are the handiwork of arsonists. Less than 10 percent are started by lightning. And here is the big point: 90 percent are caused by people—the carelessness of the campers, hunters, travelers, loggers, farmers and the others who live in the forests, who work in them, or who visit them.

During the campaign, these and many other facts will be made available. Forest fire prevention—like any other kind of fire prevention—isn't a job for the "other fellow." It is a job for you.

The Case of Sugar

ONCE again production goals announced by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson show the unfortunate degree to which the government has gotten itself into business in the case of sugar. Instead of really trying to take the government out of business, the political leaders of both parties in Washington have allowed it to be used as an instrument to give a handful of sugar producers higher prices at the expense of the great body of consumers.

Sugar is produced much more cheaply just a few miles from our shores—in Cuba—than in the continental United States. Yet we continue to encourage sugar production within some of our states by means of federal production quotas and subsidies in the form of benefit payments.

Similarly, we put an import tariff on sugar from Cuba so as to help protect domestic producers and processors.

No other crop or industry has obtained such extensive control, with the aid of government, of a product of general consumption.

As long as we can get all the sugar we need from Cuba, Hawaii and the Philippines at a price below domestic production costs, it seems a bad waste of the taxpayer's money to be subsidizing uneconomic production at home.

By Any Other Name

WORLD WAR II was by all odds the best reported war in history. To the voluminous records and communiques of the war days, there are being added daily the memoirs of those who played the leading roles.

Yet it is a curious irony that despite this wealth of documentation the people of the United States are far from agreed on many aspects of the causes and conduct of the war. The popular mind has crystallized the antecedent issue of the Revolutionary War into "taxation without representation." Similarly, the Civil War is conveniently thought of as a crusade "to abolish slavery."

With all the data on hand, no such pat explanation has evolved for our participation in World War II. Perhaps it will become known as the war we had to fight because we didn't have the foresight and courage to cut down an aggressor while he was vulnerable.

Mothers Show the Way; Down in the Basement

By MERCURY READERS

Writers must sign their names and give street address as evidence of good faith but these will be withheld from publication on request. It is a criminal offense to sign another's name. Poetry and communications advocating the election of political candidates are not acceptable.

More Money for Recreation

To the Editor: Too much credit can't be given those mothers in the Seventh ward who, in their desire to keep their children off the streets, are taking over the job of providing a playground. Yet it seems to me that if a group of women becomes so aroused over the need for recreation facilities for their children, we're not giving the recreation commission a big enough cut out of our tax monies.

One child, by his own admission, has been sneaking with other youngsters onto The Hill school grounds to play. It's a sad situation when our youngsters must gain by stealth the healthful recreation that rightly belongs to them.

Pottstown's recreation budget should be increased, even if it means higher taxes. Surely no criticism should come from taxpayers if they could be certain that their money would go for this purpose.

As for the needs of the Seventh ward, I hope those civic-minded groups that have been sinking good money into fancy fountains and the like for Manatawny park will hide in shame over their neglect of these children. They ought to invest their money where it will do some real good.

Law Makes Him Knuckle Down

To the Editor: You ought to get some reporters on your paper with some knowledge of the brow-beating some of us married men take from our wives. They would never go around digging up information about old laws requiring husbands to clean out their basements.

Relief From Smoke

To the Editor: So the Shuwall plant is having a strike.

Now for at least a couple of days that inferno of theirs won't be belching big fat clouds of black coal smoke over the entire town. Every time there is a south wind blowing the whole North End looks like Pittsburgh in a London fog.

Speaking of Pittsburgh, Pottstown could take a lesson from them. They have smoke prevention which puts muzzles on smoke machines like Shuwall's.

Here's an idea for the Ladies Garment Workers local.

Why don't they strike a blow for civic improvement while the iron's hot and put smoke prevention into their demands they're making against the company?

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

GREGORY M., 34, is principal of a grammar school.

"Dr. Crane, do you think it is worth while to spend the time and money on an education in order to become a school teacher?" he asked me.

"My own experience is quite similar to many."

Ten years ago I began teaching in a small country school. My yearly salary amounted to $950 per year, or less than $80 per month.

"After moving around from one school to another, I finally got a break the past Spring and was selected to be the principal of a large grade school. Being a married man, I was offered $10 per month more than the former principal."

"But even with this extra sum, my annual salary is now but $1,585 or only $132.00 per month."

"OUT OF THIS meager sum I must pay my own expenses when I attend a teacher's institute or a Summer session at the University, and our school board insists that we teachers enrol each year in one of these."

"If we ask our board to underwrite our expenses, they tell us that attendance at Summer session is all to our advantage; that it means nothing to the school."

"But we'd lose our jobs if we ever refused to attend. Moreover, we are expected to donate liberally to the local churches and other altruistic bodies, whether or not we belong to such churches."

"If we happen to be broke, we must borrow in order to make our donation. I know this sounds exaggerated. Dr. Crane, but it is absolutely the truth."

"In fact, we must even purchase our clothing, food and other necessities in our own small town where members of the School Board are merchants, although they hold us up on prices, and we could get much better bargains from the mail order houses."

"This kind of life is very disheartening to all of us. Why should we spend money year after year training for advancement, when we don't even rate a janitor's salary?"

"All of my teachers and I greatly enjoy our work of teaching youngsters, but we are growing bitter and disillusioned."

"My other college classmates are now well established in their respective professions, while I, as a married man and school principal, rate a paltry $132.00 per month. Are we in the wrong field of work?"

President Hutchins, of the University of Chicago, has indicted America for permitting such disgraceful salary conditions to prevail. The school teachers are molding the thinking and cultural attitudes of the future generation.

Certainly their efforts are worthy of a more equitable salary scale.

The best and most influential teaching in our school system occurs below the college level. And in grammar school, we have the greatest opportunity to eradicate prejudices, instill idealism, and protect the principles on which our republic was founded.

The grammar schools and our churches are really our first line trenches.

The Army and Navy get billions with great ease, while the most important defenders of our country; namely, the school teachers, are ignored or abused.

America's annual liquor bill is three times our total school expenditures.

WASHINGTON

Reserve Board Seeking Showdown With Soviets

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, April 29 — The latest and sharpest demand for an "early" showdown with Russia has stemmed from an entirely unexpected quarter — namely, the Federal Reserve Board at Washington.

Although this agency deals with dollars rather than bullets, it has warned Congress that the United States cannot continue indefinitely to tax and borrow for financing of domestic needs, foreign aid and military preparations without giving Russia a "cheap" victory.

The ultimatum was submitted by Vice Chairman Marriner S. Eccles before the Joint Committee on the Economic Report, but the sensational nature of his remarks was so surrounded with technical monetary discussions that they virtually passed unnoticed except among high officials at the White House, the State department and the Pentagon building. They also had a depressing but definite effect among a small group on Capitol Hill.

Most important, Mr. Eccles was expressing the considered conclusions of the board rather than his own individual views. The problem of an economic crackup under a prolonged "cold war," which will entail vast expenditures for five years or a decade, has occupied the minds of the Federal financiers at many an executive session for the last few months.

FORCE: It is also understood that the single volume which has most deeply impressed board members is "Strange Alliance" which was written by Major Gen. John R. Deane, former head of the American Military mission at Moscow. From his personal dealings with the Kremlin he proved to himself and his readers that:

1. It is impossible to negotiate with the Russians on a normal and rational basis. It is impossible to get them to agree to peaceful and permanent settlement of major issues which divide them from the Western powers, and when they do agree, they reserve the right to break the agreement at their convenience.

2. The only argument which Moscow understands, respects and will bow to is an opponent's strength, as well as the appreciation that the other fellow will use his force if necessary.

Another historical commentary which has shaped board members' thinking is Winston Churchill's memoirs. The British wartime leader's principal thesis is that the last conflict was "unnecessary" and resulted from the "temporizing" policies which the so-called democracies pursued toward Germany, Italy and Japan from 1919 to 1939. It is against the background of these writings that the Eccles worries and warnings must be projected and interpreted.

WRECK: Vice Chairman Eccles suggested three alternative solutions to our world difficulties as aggravated by the stalemate between Washington and London. He did not seem too optimistic, however, that any one of them or a combination of them would improve our political, military or financial lot.

First, he said that the United States could continue its proposed foreign aid and carry out a military program of an "undetermined cost and size" and without any effective controls. Roughly, this would mean an annual expenditure for an indefinite period — five or ten years — of almost sixty billions. It would consist of a budget of 37 billions, foreign assistance of at least five and military outlays of fifteen billions or more.

"This is the certain road, if followed long enough," he added, "to a ruinous inflation. . . . Those who view us with a hostile eye no doubt hope that we will wreck our economy on the shoals of inflation. It would be a cheap way to defeat us."

ALTERNATIVE: His second alternative contemplated the reimposition of even more drastic checks and controls than we suffered during World War II. allocations of materials, construction permits, price and wage ceilings, higher taxation. In short, a police state save for the lack of brutality against the individual.

He questioned, however, whether the American people would endure such semi-permanent regimentation, unless they were assured that there was "an end in sight which will enable us to maintain our system and our institutions in a peaceful world." From his statement it is clear that neither he nor the guardians of our financial security discern any "end point in sight" under existing conditions.

Then he swung into the most grave portion of his analysis and warning:

TIME: "We may well ask for how many years must we maintain enormous and probably expanding military expenditures. The question is how long, and to what end, and at what consequence to our economy?"

"We do not have the inexhaustible supplies of manpower and resources to support indefinitely, with no end point in sight, programs of the magnitude which we now are shouldering or contemplating. We cannot go on year after year, bearing these crushing costs jeopardizing what we seek to save."

"If we were confident of the early establishment of peace, we could tolerate a tightly controlled economy. We believe that the time element is the very essence of this grave problem."

How's Your Mind?

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. Can you name the four presidents who have died in office since 1875?
2. Who was Kit Carson?
3. The sweetheart of what famous poet was "Highland Mary"?
4. What relation was Napoleon I to Napoleon III?

Cary Grant

Radio veteran Cameron Prud'homme—18 years in broadcasting—came to the mike after long experience on the stage. He appeared in the late George W. Cohan's productions and in D. W. Griffith's motion picture, "Abraham Lincoln." "Prud" has participated in more than 4000 broadcasts originating in New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco. He now plays a kindly small town philosopher in "David Harum." In addition to acting, Prud'homme has written and produced a number of radio shows, and also served as a radio station production manager.

Air Lines Executive Edward Vernon (Eddie) Rickenbacker, born at Columbus, O., was a widely-known auto racer and won championships before he became a famous flyer. During World War I, Eddie accompanied Gen. John J. Pershing to France as a member of the Motor Car staff, and then at his own request, was transferred to the Air Service. He became commanding officer in the first American air unit to participate actively at the western front, and this unit was credited with 69 victories — the largest number of any American unit. Captain Rickenbacker headed the list with 26 victories to his credit and became American ace of aces. During World War II he was forced down on a Pacific flight, being rescued after three weeks at sea on a life raft.

MODERN MANNERS
If you are giving a bridge party and are not sure what prizes to give, provide one for the woman and one for the man with the highest score, then you can add two or more low score, consolation or "booby" prizes, as you wish.

KMC EVENT — Columbian Castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, held a booster event. An address was made by London B. Engle, Lyman Gilbert entertained with flute solos, and Davis Gilbert and Harry McCrea were seen in a comedy skit.

HOME DESTROYED — The home of Charles Hill in Fowler Valley was entirely destroyed by fire, caused by an overheated stove.

COMPOSES WAR SONG — Sgt. Frank Dennis, of Company A, has composed a war song which is proving popular.

BURNS TO DEATH — Henry H. Linshigler, 81, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his home at the rear of 4 Chestnut street. A spark from a chimney is blamed by firemen for the blaze.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY — The 175 anniversary of the Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania was celebrated at the Augustus Lutheran church, Trappe. Taking part in the program were Rev. Norman Y. Ritter, of Perkasie; Dr. J. J. Kline and Rev. L. J. Bickel, this borough. A memorial service was held in honor of Rev. Henry Y. Seyler.

GIVES RECITAL — Miss Grace Evelyn Frick gave a piano recital in Library hall. She was assisted by Alma Hertzog, soprano.

FARMERS GUARD MILK — Farmers in Northern Chester county are guarding with pitch forks shipments of milk to the Philadelphia market. A union of the American Federation of Labor is waging a strike against the Abbott's dairies. Franklin J. Mast, of Warwick, said milk shipments on Route 23 were sent through.

GRESSMAN RE-ELECTED — W. O. Cressman, of the Pottstown school vocational department, was re-elected treasurer of the Montgomery county Vocational Teachers association at the annual banquet meeting held at Riverside Inn, Graterford.

50TH ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurter Sr., of 227 Walnut street, Royersford, observed their 50th wedding anniversary at their home. He is a stone mason by trade.

NEW SECRET — Russia has a secret almost as vital as the atom bomb itself. They are developing a perfect wheat according to an article in the May issue of Mechanix Illustrated magazine. Their goal is a grain that can stand heavy frost, drought, wind and rain; resist disease; grow year after year without reseed, and still yield 25 bushels an acre. The Soviets are making an all-out effort to grow this super wheat and turn the sweeping wastelands of Siberia into fertile farmland. If they succeed even partly, hungry millions now crying for breathing space may flock to the arid, cold, desolate corners of the world. Bären ground will mushroom with bustling colonists staking out their plots in a land boom like the gold rush of '49.

JOB HOPPING — By hopping from one job to another, thousands of men are ruining their chances of future success, says Martin W. Schaul, industrial psychologist, in the May issue of Today's Woman magazine. "Too many men are on the move these days," the personnel director of one of the East's largest oil companies told Schaul. "They don't realize that their best opportunities are in their present jobs." Why are men changing jobs so frequently right now? Desire for higher pay or pleasanter working conditions, dislike of the boss, and the general restlessness that typifies the post-war world, are among the explanations given by top job analysts.

If a man feels he must change jobs, Schaul says, he should first answer honestly these questions: 1. Are general business conditions and specific trends in the new field good? 2. What are the possibilities for future advancement in the new job? 3. Is your present job really lacking in opportunities?

Congressman Asks Foreign Spending Be Halted, Cites Cost

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP) — Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) called today for brakes on foreign spending, citing figures to show the United States has provided $73,233,890,070 in aid abroad since 1940.

Hoffman put the tabulation in the Congressional record. He said the figures were made up for him by the legislation reference service, covering the period July 7, 1940, to Oct. 1, 1947.

Of the total authorized for foreign aid in all forms, Hoffman said, $68,774,364,498 actually was spent before Sept. 30, 1947.

The expenditures total included $5,877,163,298 in loans, $2,492,908,897 in property credits other than cash, $1,003,331,297 in advances of goods or cash for which payment is expected in materials or services, $6,624,073,900 in relief and rehabilitation, and $52,777,697,106 in other authorizations.

The other authorizations included $49,392,697,106 in lease advances.

The British empire with $31,289,165,451 and Soviet Russia with $11,075,653,115 topped those receiving lend-lease aid as listed in Hoffman's figures.

HOFFMAN SAID the library of Congress lists at $383,000,000 the total cost of World War II to the U. S. up to June 30 of this year. This compares with $74,000,000,000 the library says World War I cost.

"The point is this," Hoffman said, "how long can our people carry that kind of an ever-increasing burden before the load sinks us?"

Lecturer Says War, Discord Are Fables

"War, hate and discord are fables; peace, love and harmony are facts." This was a central theme of a lecture last night in the Pottstown Junior High school by Sim Andrew Kolliner, C. S. B., of St. Paul, Minn., a member of the Board of Leadership of the Mother church, the First church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Sponsored by the Pottstown First Church of Christ, Scientist, the address was titled, "Christian Science: Its Practical Application to Everyday Life."

Kolliner stressed also that "Illness and pain are fables; health and ease are facts. Lack and sorrow are fables; abundance and happiness are facts."

The speaker went on to give incidents of physical healing and the solution of business or social problems, citing a man of the Canadian Army, who tried every material means to have his family transferred with him, then discovered "orders do come from God, and not from government officials, ambassadors, Army officers or other material channels." His family was transferred.

out the years, although Macdonald lost patience several times and almost was tempted to give it up. Mrs. Macdonald made him continue his efforts.

In the meantime, he spent 23 years as a draftsman with the Bethlehem Steel company, a position from which he now is retired.

Finally, his application was approved. But, although he had an artificial leg and foot, he was forced to miss two naturalization days because he had no way of getting to court.

Yesterday, the court came to him.

HIS CITIZENSHIP capped still another victory for him. Within a month, he will move with his family to a home of his own at 448 Chestnut street.

Macdonald has one son, Malcolm, now living in North Carolina, a daughter, Janice, living in New Jersey, and two daughters, Patricia and Ann, at home.

Others from the Pottstown area who received their final citizenship papers in court yesterday were Zuzana Kollar, Stowe; Emmy Decher, Perkiomenville RD 1, and Pauline Schonberger, Collegeville.

Engineers Set to Join Rail Walkout May 11

CHICAGO, April 29 (P) — The vital engineers union joined in the May 11 nation-wide railroad strike call today as Federal mediators moved to ward off a paralyzing transportation tie-up.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held aloft yesterday when two operating unions — the Firemen and Engineers' Brotherhood said they had not yet decided "when and if" they would call a strike.

Late today, after the National railway mediation board had held two conferences with the unions, J. P. Shields, vice president of the Engineers' Brotherhood, announced the strike plans.

that Mrs. Oldt was still badly upset by her husband's death and funeral.

Then the medium-height swindler became sentimental, talked of what a loss it would be to him if his dear wife were to die. He went on to say how eager he was to make the transaction as simple as possible for Mrs. Oldt.

As if making a charitable concession, Landau promised he would get the $4507.17 in cash for her, and within a week. All he needed was $237 to use as a means of expediting the transaction.

COLLECTING the $237, he topped his smooth, tall tale. He had signed one receipt "R. C. Wagner," and signed the others "Ray C. Wagner," explaining he never could decide which signature he preferred.

Moreover, he said, as he picked up his new hat and donned his well-worn, brown tweed overcoat, he would send Mrs. Oldt a telegram April 19. In it, Landau said, he would name the time he would call on her the following day, with the cash.

As he stepped toward the door, his "considerateness" took him one step further. He not only would bring her the money April 20, but he also would drive her directly to the bank and make sure "it was in a safe deposit box, safe from anyone who might take advantage of her," he said.

The gentleman walked out of the house, down Queen street, and then up Eden street. Mrs. Oldt assumed he had a car, but as with his other victims, she had no chance to see it or its license number.

There has been no telegram from Landau.

ON APRIL 16, Mrs. Oldt happened to get in touch with an officer of the Spicer's Employees' Aid association. A quick check revealed she had been duped. The directors of the association called a special meeting and appointed a director to head the investigation.

After learning all details of the case, he turned the information over to Pottstown police. Apparently hopeful that when Landau said he would return he wasn't kidding, police have refused to publicize the swindle.

Landau's description is on file in nearly every police department in the East. He has escaped detection because 90 percent of his victims do not want their story published, leaving Landau free to operate, with a variation of the same tale, upon widows who have not been warned.

The earth's population is increasing at the rate of 1 percent annually.

In Colonial America, a cap was the sign of a married woman.

Justices Flare Up In Labor Act Case

WASHINGTON, April 29 (P) — A sensational flareup in the Supreme Court today found Justice Frankfurter charging the government with co-operating with the CIO in a Taft-Hartley law test case—and Chief Justice Vinson banging his gavel in white-faced anger.

After Frankfurter had peppered contending attorneys with question after question, Vinson in effect served notice on him to hush up. He did this by telling the attorneys, who were trying to reply to Frankfurter's questions, that their time was up.

The flare up, unusual for the solemn Supreme Court chamber, climaxed the court's first hearing on the constitutionality of a section of the Taft-Hartley law.

Chief Justice Vinson three times ordered government and CIO attorneys to stop their arguments. His final order halted a government attorney, Jesse Climenko, after Climenko jumped up and said:

"I deplore the accusation—"

A few seconds earlier the ordinarily placid Vinson told CIO attorney Lee Pressman that his argument time had expired.

DAYTON, O., April 29 (P) — Howard Hughes' famed XF11, the photo reconnaissance plane which figured in a Senate investigation of the West Coast builder, landed to night at 9:30 p. m. at nearby Wright field.

The plane took off from Culver City, Calif., at 5:51 p. m., with Capt. William Elliott at the controls.

The XF11 was the third of three new-type planes received by the Air Force at Wright field within the past 24 hours.

Periodical Examinations For Autoists Sought

HARRISBURG, April 29 (P) — Compulsory re-examinations for all motor vehicle operators every five years was recommended today by the Pennsylvania automotive association.

The recommendation, submitted to Gov. James H. Duff and the State Legislature for consideration, would require the periodic re-examination of operators in order to determine their "fitness to operate a motor vehicle."

The resolution, passed yesterday at a meeting here of the association's board of directors, asserted that a large percentage of the traffic accidents in the State can be attributed to the operators of motor vehicles committing driving errors.

The group also recommended the formation of a department of motor vehicles in the Commonwealth.

Stevodore Crew Boss Is Fatally Wounded

NEW YORK, April 29 (P) — The boss of a stevedore crew was fatally wounded today when hit by a volley of shots as he stepped from the door of his home in uptown Manhattan.

The victim, Thomas Collentine, 30, was on his way to work with two other longshoremen when a man leaped from a shiny black sedan, fired seven shots, leaped back in the car and sped away.

Hit by three of the bullets, Collentine was rushed to a hospital where he died several hours later. His two companions were ordered held as material witnesses.

Police immediately launched a widespread investigation of the city's sprawling waterfront area. The pier where the victim worked reportedly has been a hotbed of trouble in recent months.

"I don't think we should worry so much about the effect on business as the safety of people using the street."

A discussion of an overall traffic survey, including the area bounded by Manatwamy, Beech, Adams and South streets, also was expected to come before the committee tonight.

The survey is being made by the police committee, Police Chief James A. Laughhead and Burgess William A. Griffith, with the cooperation of local automobile clubs and State Highway department officials.

Airliner Is Fired On In Costa Rica Capital

PANAMA, Panama, April 29 (P) — A Pan American World Airways plane was fired on today as it took off from San Jose, Costa Rica. Although no one aboard was wounded, the plane later landed here with five bullet holes in the fuselage and a flat tire.

There were five passengers aboard the plane, including Costa Rican Communist leader Manuel Mora Valverde, and an undisclosed number of crew members.

Cub Pack Presents Program of Skits, Songs; Awards Given

It was "Legends and Traditions" night in the Emmanuel Lutheran church last night, as youngsters of Cub Pack 53 entertained each other and their parents in skits and songs.

The program included "Paul Revere," by Den 1; "Gold Rush Days," by Den 2; "Robin Hood," by Den 3; "Rip Van Winkle," by Den 4; and "Folk Dance," by Den 5.

After all this, the boys joined in song and made the rafters ring with the Pennsylvania Dutch favorite, "Schnitzelbock."

WHEN THINGS calmed down somewhat, awards were handed out. They included:

Den 1—Jerry Neyenssch, Wolf badge; Leon Harbold, Bear badge; Richard Fine, Denner stripe, and Alfred Miles, assistant Denner stripe.

Den 2—Dennis Kulp, Wolf silver arrow.

Den 4—Bobcats, for new members, to Carl Hoffecker, Roland Faust, Robert Cisk and Gene Ingram.

Den 5—William Morrell Jr., Wolf gold arrow and Bear book; William Schmeier and Richard Seidel, service stars; Wayne Hughes and George Jacobs, Bear books, and Edmund Sobresky, Wolf silver arrow.

Den 6—Robert Sterner, Bear silver arrow; David Reichen, Bear badge; Bear gold arrow and Lion badge; Linwood Quinter, Wolf badge; and Paul Salter, the Webbs badge, the highest honor in Cubbing.

Den 6 won the den attendance prize for the month, while Den 4 walked off with parent attendance prize.

30 Passengers Hurt As Train Hits Block

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Thirty Pennsylvania women were injured today when their special train ran into a rail block at Union station.

They were among 800 members of the Delaware County Federation of Women's clubs who came to Washington for a reception by Mrs. Truman and a day of sightseeing.

Six of the women were injured seriously enough to be detained at Casualty hospital. The others were treated either at hospitals or at the first aid room in the station.

The mishap occurred when the 14-car special Pennsylvania railroad train bumped into a barrier at end of the track. The women were standing up in preparation to leaving the train and the abrupt stop tossed them against seats and into the aisles.

GATES ERECTED

Police Bring Convicts Back to Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, April 29 (AP)—

Two convicted bank robbers, sought for 15 months in a nationwide manhunt, were brought back to Philadelphia today to face charges of murdering a policeman.

Both men—David Almeida and James F. Smith, Jr.—were shackled hand and foot. An alert, armed guard of FBI and Quaker City police officials escorted the two from a train through a crowd of 1000 persons to Holmesburg prison.

Almeida kept his head down. He was tieless, sullen and defiant. Smith stood erect, posed smilingly for photographers and seemingly showed no fear for his future.

The two were brought here from New Orleans, La., where they were sentenced to 35-year terms in Federal prison for helping rob a bank of $114,000.

The "homecoming" was marred by one flaw—Almeida's wife, Anna, refused to waive extradition from New Orleans. She is held in that Southern city on charges of helping conceal part of the bank loot. In Philadelphia, she's wanted as an accessory after the fact of murder. Almeida and Smith are accused of the gun slaying of Patrolman Cecil Ingling during a supermarket holdup Jan. 30, 1947. A third man, Edward Hough, 33, has been condemned to death in Pennsylvania's electric chair for participating in the holdup-murder. His execution was delayed pending trial of the two others.

18 Persons Are Hurt As Bus Hits Crash Truck

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 29 (AP)—Eighteen persons were injured today in the collision of a passenger bus with a Tinker Field Air force base crash truck.

None of the injured was believed in critical condition.

Tinker field officials said there were 27 passengers aboard the bus, en route here from Fort Smith, Ark. The bus driver, G. V. Spurlock, Oklahoma City, was injured slightly.

The truck driver, Floyd E. Keefe, was unhurt. He said Spurlock attempted to pass him on the highway and the rear of the crash truck collided with the front of the bus.

Americans in Germany Waiting to Come Home

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The Army said today about 1000 American military and civilian personnel are awaiting transportation home from the German port of Bremerhaven.

The announcement said the back-log of travelers resulted from normal factors and that "there is no urgency in the situation." It said those awaiting return are personnel who had completed tours of duty or who desired to come home for other routine reasons.

Parkerford Trucker In Norristown Crash

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, April 29—A truck driven by David Conner, 40, of Parkerford, struck the car of a Plymouth Meeting man here yesterday afternoon, resulting in the car's driver being sent to Montgomery hospital.

Police said Thomas A. Griffith, 70, was pulling his car out of a parking place when the westbound truck, owned by the McAvoy Brick company, Phoenixville, struck Griffith's car broadside.

Griffith was treated for lacerations of the face and head and possible internal injuries.

GIRL, 8, KILLED BY CAR
EVERETT, April 29 (AP)—Joan Shaw, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Siman Shaw, of Crystal Spring, was killed today when hit by a car. The child, en route to school, had just stepped from her father's car to await a school bus, when the accident occurred.

There are more hoofed animals in America now than when the buffalo roamed.

Church Class Hears Songs by Quartet

A program of Negro spirituals by a male quartet from Pine Forge Institute highlighted a meeting of the Normal class of Emmanuel Lutheran church Wednesday night. The four young singers, all members of the senior class of the high school at the institute, were heard in six numbers.

As an interlude in the program, H. T. Saulter, manager of the Allegheny Conference Book and Bible House, spoke briefly. He told of the aims and purposes of Pine Forge institute, and of the future plans for this educational institution.

Harry S. Kepner presided at a brief business session that preceded the entertainment. Birthday greetings were extended the Rev. Luther A. Krouse, pastor of Emmanuel, whose birthday anniversary was Wednesday. The class presented the pastor with his annual gift, renewed membership in the National Geographic society.

Various members reported making 39 visits to sick and shut-ins during the past month. Following the program, refreshments were served.

Come in Today and meet the

All-New MERCURY

The All-New 1949 Mercury

You've seen a lot of "new models."

Once in a long, long time you see a new car.

Today is one of those times. The 1949 Mercury on our floor is the car.

With your very first look you'll know Mercury is new, all-new. From the front? Mercury is wider, with strikingly handsome grillwork, and exciting new fender treatment completely enclosed in a sleek, graceful, curved-arch silhouette. From the side? Mercury is longer and lower, with a poised-for-flight look that gives an illusion of motion even when the car is standing still. From the back? Mercury has all the luxurious styling you expect to find only in a car far above Mercury's price class.

This 1949 Mercury is a product of 1949-plus engineering. It has a big, rugged frame—with safety, stamina and down-to-earth roadability in every inch of it. There's all-new spring suspension, with a lullaby ride above it.

New safer, wider rims—with new, bigger super-balloon tires—make shocks and sideways a thing of the past. There are all-new super-brakes with velvety "STOP" in 'em, and a new 8-cylinder, V-type power plant with get-up-and-"GO" in it—a power plant designed and built exclusively for Mercury! There's even a new, fog-free, leakproof "Fingertip Weather Control" so you can flood the car with fresh, outside air at your will.

It's here, waiting for you to see. All-new beauty, all-new comfort, all-new performance. Every inch and pound is all-new—inside and out, top to bottom, front to back. Available in a choice of superb body styles, including Mercury's all-new Six-passenger Coupe and Six-passenger Convertible.

So...

Before you think of buying a new model, see the ALL-NEW Mercury.

That's the only break this 1949 Mercury asks of you!

AOPA Is Granted Charter by National Unit; Hears Talk on Types of Landing Systems

The fledgling Pottstown chapter of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots association last night flapped its wings officially for the first time at a charter night banquet in the dining hall at Art's diner.

It proved to be a charterless charter night, however. The approximately 30 members and wives present were told that the national organization recognizes chapters only by letter. The group has received its letter.

The local chapter, comprised of plane owners and pilots in the area, has been in existence for six weeks. Its principal aims are stimulation of local interest in flying and making breakfast flights.

The local birdmen were briefed last night on the policies and achievements of the national organization by Alfred Wolf, general counsel for the AOPA. Wolf, the principal speaker, was introduced by William J. Weiss, secretary.

WOLF, A PRACTICING Philadelphia attorney and wartime lieutenant colonel in the Air Transport command, said the greatest fight the AOPA has had is pushing Congress to require installation of the ground controlled approach system in non-military airports. Most military fields have the system, he said.

In this struggle they have been opposed by the Airline Pilots association which favors the instrument landing system. He went on to describe both briefly.

In the GCA setup, an airport is equipped with about five radar finding sets scattered about the strip. As a plane comes in for a landing each radar operator charts the plane's path on the screen and radios the pilot instructions on landing.

The system works in all kinds of weather and requires the pilot to be equipped only with a radio, he explained.

THE INSTRUMENT landing system, however, calls for a radar set in each plane. As the pilot approaches for a landing he must keep the landing strip in cross hairs on his screen.

The difficulty, Wolf pointed out, is that the set weighs a lot and requires the pilot to be a radar expert. Also, he added, the AOPA tested the system on a wet day and found it to be 800 feet out in altitude. Airline pilots explained that the wetness caused this.

Robert Hartmaier, vice-president, was in charge last night in the absence of Vernon Shaffer, president.

State Official Outlines Tax Bill for Boroughs

S. C. Braucher, deputy secretary of the Pennsylvania department of internal affairs, went over the State's new "borough bill" in detail last night at a meeting of Montgomery County Boroughs association in Wissahickon firehall, Ambler.

The meeting was attended by 145, among them 13 Pottstown officials, including Burgess William A. Griffith and Borough Manager Dow I. Sears.

The bill allows boroughs to levy taxes on income, amusements and many other categories.

The next meeting will be held in Pottstown on May 26.

restrictions would remain effective until Monday.

Last night's incident was the first test of anticipated Leftist May Day disturbances.

THE POLICE fired their revolvers into the air and used fire hoses and motorcycles to disperse crowds of several hundred Communists marching through the heart of the city.

There were no immediate reports of casualties.

As soon as small groups of Yugoslav demonstrators left the Slovene sector of Trieste and started toward Piazza Garibaldi and Piazza Impero the police went into action.

They followed the crowd into the Communist sector. When rocks were thrown at them from rooftops they opened fire over their assailants' heads.

Whiskey Drinkers Say Blindfold Test Outmoded—Select Favorite 100 Proof With Eyes Open

Conversations with whiskey drinkers who know good whiskey reveal that they'd be willing to take a blindfold test, but that they consider it old-fashioned. "Whiskey drinkers today make their choice with their eyes wide-open," say the men who know. And the big majority of those interviewed confirmed the fact that Four Queens—Pennsylvania's largest selling 100 proof—is definitely the preferred brand.

Whiskey drinkers who insist upon the finest know that the only way to judge the quality of any brand is on the basis of taste and their judgment is that "You can pick out Four Queens 100 Proof from any other brand."

The full bodied flavor and mellow, hearty taste make this popular brand stand out above all others. It's a standard bargain too—full 100 proof and the 4/5 quart bottles sell at State Stores for only $3.99. At bars too, the low price per drink is just what the average fellow can easily afford.

That's why smart whiskey drinkers are insisting on the best. They always ask for Four Queens, because it goes farther than regular 85 and 86 proof whiskeys, and is a man's drink, straight, as well as a perfect mixer. Four Queens, a blend, is made by Kasser Distillers Products Corporation, Philadelphia, seventy percent grain neutral spirits . . . advt.

Mrs. Mary Pipchik Dies in Hospital

Mary Sninchak (Mihaylo) Pipchik, 68, of 58 South Evans street, died last night at 10 o'clock in Pottstown hospital. In failing health for the past nine months, she was admitted to the hospital early last night.

Mrs. Pipchik was born in the part of Austria-Hungary that is now Czechoslovakia. She came with her family to this country while a young girl, living for a few years in New York City and moving to this area nearly 35 years ago.

For the past 30 years, she resided at 59 South Evans. Her first husband, Michael Sninchak, died in 1924, while her second husband, Paul Pipchik, died a few years ago.

A housewife, she was a member of St. John's Catholic Church of Greek rite.

Surviving are two daughters, Margaret, wife of Joseph Long, and Mrs. Anna Palewski, both of 256 Chestnut street, Spring City.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete last night.

COST OF OLEO —

within the past two weeks. Another price hike may be expected soon, they added.

Salesmen for oleo manufacturers believe repeal of the State law against the sale of colored margarine may be forthcoming if Wednesday's measure passes the Senate, according to retailers.

Although savings of $1128 in Federal taxes on all three sales levels would be effected, there still would be no perceptible reduction in the retail price.

THE BILL was fought by representatives of milk producing states who sought to attach amendments and make it compulsory to put out the product in round or triangular molds. Each amendment was defeated.

One possible effect of the passage of the bill in the House was a three cent drop in the price of butter yesterday. It was hinted that the drop came about to increase butter sales to off-set the rising popularity of oleo.

Uncle Sam imported 1663 tons of dried figs in 1946-47 and 921 tons of these came from Turkey.

New Yeast keeps without refrigeration

Fleischmann's announces an amazing new yeast which needs no refrigeration. Unlike old-time perishable yeast, the new Yeast can be kept for weeks on the pantry shelf or in the cupboard. Enough can be kept on hand to meet all baking emergencies.

The new yeast known as Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast is used exactly like compressed yeast. No new recipes or directions are needed. One package of Fleischmann's Dry Yeast equals one compressed yeast cake in any recipe. It is now available at your grocer's.

Proposal to Include Canal in Cleanup To Be Discussed

Seeking to have the Schuylkill canal at Spring City included in the proposed clean-up program now under way by the State department of forests and waters, a meeting of all civic and fraternal organizations has been arranged to take place Monday night, May 10, at 7:30 o'clock in borough hall.

W. Kenneth Rothermel, chairman of the committee representing borough council in the matter, said yesterday the only necessary requirement to make the project a reality is to have the whole-hearted co-operation and support of the civic and fraternal organizations of the community.

For this reason, communications will be sent all groups to attend the meeting May 10. Rothermel added "the canal is of no use to the community, either from a scenic or an economical standpoint at present, but if it were cleaned, the familiar old waterway could once more be a thing of beauty, to say nothing of the added protection the community would receive as a source of water supply in the event of a serious blaze in the business district."

"Furthermore," Rothermel said, "if the waterway were restored to its former condition, it would once more make an excellent recreational and fishing center for the residents of the community."

Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Mrs. J. E. Barthel, 624 Walnut street, Royersford, announced the engagement of their daughter, Elfrida, to George W. Pesak Jr., son of Mrs. G. M. Pesak, Coatesville.

Miss Barthel was graduated from Royersford high school and Hahnemann hospital School of Nursing. She is at present on the staff of the U. S. V. A. hospital, Coatesville.

Mr. Pesak was graduated from Coatesville high school and attended Drexel Institute of Technology before seeing 26 months overseas duty with the U. S. Army. He is connected with the Veterans hospital in the personnel department. No date has been set for the wedding.

master panel, the box circuits and the alarm panels.

The system is fully automatic, and the board generates its own power as well as provides for alarms to be sounded if a wire on the circuit is broken.

Eight circuits have been provided, four more than now are in use, and Price suggested last night a modification of the circuits to distribute the load evenly, as well as the use of a fifth circuit to serve the North End where housing projects are under construction.

RICE ALSO described the Vocalarm system, by which fire houses can communicate with one another and with borough hall.

Full use of the equipment in borough hall is expected to begin Tuesday, while modernization of the boxes continues.

In addition to changing the numbers on these boxes, each street intersection in Pottstown and South Pottstown will be numbered and files will be kept

In each fire house for immediate identification when news of fires is telephoned.

Lindauer said that Rice will explain the system to all drivers and their assistants.

The group at borough hall last night included J. Irvin Scheetz, Pottstown's assistant fire chief; Robert Roth, Good Will Fire company chief; Richard Moser, chief of the Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company; Rollin H. Klink, driver for the Good Will; Josiah Foley, assistant Good Will driver; Lindauer and Price.

Letter to Wrong Person To Bring Wedding Bells

PATERSON, N. J., April 29 (AP) — Miss Sofia Carola wrote a letter in 1944 to her brother, Pfc. Louis Carola, who was in an Army hospital in France, recovering from a wound. The letter was delivered to a different Pfc. Louis Carola—a wounded soldier in another Army hospital in France. This Carola came from Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia Carola wrote back to Miss Carola. Their letters became more frequent. When the war was over, the Philadelphia Carola visited Miss Carola in Paterson. Miss Carola will become Mrs. Louis Carola Saturday at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, Paterson.

Court Distributes $45,282 Balance In Saylor Estate

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, April 29—A balance of principal of $45,282.85 in the estate of Henry D. Saylor, Pottstown, who died Feb. 8, 1947, is distributed by an Orphans' court accounting.

After payment of various taxes due, the balance is distributed as follows: To Dora B. Saylor, clothing, jewelry and automobile, and to Harold D. Saylor, testamentary trustee, the residue for various life trusts for the widow, two sons and a daughter.

Estate of Oliver D. Neiman, Pottstown, who died May 21, 1947, balance of $890.36 awarded: Della Neiman, McQuiddy, daughter, $67; Luther T. Neiman, son, $22.86; Nathan H. Neiman, son, $53; Delmar R. Neiman, son, $37.50; Iva Roeller, $200, and First Baptist church of Pottstown, $500.

Jailed Forger Draws Second Prison Term

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 29 (AP)—Mark A. Hanna III was sentenced today to serve from five to seven years in a State prison after completion of his five-year term in a Federal penitentiary.

The 39-year-old great grandson of the late U. S. Senator Mark Hanna (R-Ohio) was sentenced by State Supreme Court Justice George H. Rowe.

He had pleaded guilty to three counts of an indictment accusing him of forging his wife's name to a credit application for $25,000, forging her name as endorser of a $5000 promissory note and theft of $10,000 from a Buffalo bank through use of a $30,000 check forged in the name of an uncle, G. H. Hanna, Cleveland industrialist.

Held in Arms Seizure

Joseph Untermeyer (left), 19, and Isiah Warshaw, 30, leave police line at New York police headquarters on their way to felony court for arraignment on charges of violating the Sullivan law against possessing weapons. Their arrest followed seizure of police of a cache of arms and ammunition in an industrial building on Manhattan's west side. Police said the arms were concealed in food and clothing packages addressed to individuals in Palestine.

U. S. C of C Re-elects Earl Shreve President; Gives Republican Speech Loud Acclaim

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The United States Chamber of Commerce today cheered a Republican campaign speech louder than Democratic oratory and then wound up its 36th annual meeting by re-electing Earl Shreve of New York as president.

At the closing dinner, Crawford H. Greenewald, president of the Du Pont company, appealed for renewed faith in the "strength, validity and eternal vigor of the free principles of the American system."

"Those principles are this country's greatest potential export to a disillusioned world," Greenewald told the dinner guests. "The four-day meeting attracted 2200 chamber of commerce members."

In a political debate earlier, a "certain" GOP victory in November was forecast by Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio) chairman of the executive committee of the Republican National committee. Brown said the Democrats have made a "mess" of both foreign and domestic policy. He speculated whether Henry Wallace "will actually be the head of the second or the third party when the votes are counted."

"But," Brown added, "I am confident the Republican party will be the first party by a long country mile."

His opponent was Senator J. Howard McGrath (D-R.I.), chairman of the Democratic National committee.

"America has been more prosperous during the three years of the Truman administration than ever before," McGrath said. He charged that the Republican-dominated Congress has been steering an inflationary course that may lead the country "over the cliff."

He declared the "election-year tax reduction" and what he called a "feeble" law to curb inflation by

St. James Senior Choir Holds Annual Banquet

The Senior choir of the St. James Lutheran church last night held its annual banquet in North Coventry Orange hall. The Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor, was the principal speaker.

He praised the 40 members present for faithful attendance at rehearsals and services and urged them to continue.

The Manthorne Players performed voluntary means go in that direction.

Three Washington newspapermen—Edward G. Follard of the Washington Post, Jay G. Hayden of the Detroit News, and Columnist Thomas Stokes—helped keep the political cross-fire crackling.

Cease Fire Agreement Reached in Jaffa After British Forces Attack Jewish Fighters

WALLACE LISTS SPEAKING TOUR OF WEST COAST

Third Party Leader
To Open Drive for Votes on May 15

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace decided today on a major speaking tour of the Far West to further his third party presidential candidacy.

Between May 15 and June 3 he will make 17 speeches in California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico.

He will concentrate heavily on California where his party counts on polling a large vote in November. It also plans to enter candidates in several congressional races there.

Democratic leaders have made no secret of their fears about the California situation. They have made numerous trips there to see what could be done.

THE WALLACE for President committee said the former vice president would make five speeches in California in Los Angeles May 15 and 16, Oakland 17, San Francisco 18, and San Diego 19.

He will then visit Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico in that order. After a New York speech May 11, he will stop off at Detroit enroute to the coast.

Wallace's speaking plans were announced during another day of far-ranging political happenings:

1. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt left a conference with President Truman saying "this is not the proper time to ask whether she favors the Truman nomination."

"That is a question I think no one should ask," she told newsmen. Two of her sons, Elliott and Franklin, have announced for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Replying to further questions, she said she will not attend the Democratic national convention, will not take an active part in the campaign, and is not resigning her connections with the United Nations.

2. Harold E. Stassen, who surprised even some of his own supporters by his victory in Pennsylvania's Republican write-in primary, sounded out New Jersey party leaders on second choice sentiment among the state's 35-vote national convention delegation.

3. Senator Taft, opposed by Stassen in Ohio's primary next Tuesday, carried his campaign into the Toledo district today. He returns to the Akron area tomorrow.

12,500 ENLIST
PHILADELPHIA, April 29 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Brenton G. Wallace said today 12,500 men have enlisted for the annual encampment of the Pennsylvania National Guard's 28th division at Indiantown Gap, Aug. 14 to 28.

JERUSALEM, April 29 (AP)—A cease fire agreement halted fighting in Jaffa tonight after British artillery and planes counter-attacked Jewish warriors who had driven into the all-Arab city.

British district commissioner W. W. Fuller proposed the truce to initiate a meeting between the Jews and the British for tomorrow morning. The cease fire is to continue in force until 9 a. m.

Until noon today British six pounders and mortars hammered Jaffa's riddled Manshieh quarter which was taken by the Jews yesterday after four days of fighting.

During the shelling the Jews, members of Irgun Zvai Leumi, gave every indication that they were determined to hold the ground they had won in their drive from neighboring Tel Aviv. Irgun brought up fresh troops and had its men dig defense positions.

THE BRITISH ALSO brought up reinforcements, sending in a battalion of Irish Fusiliers to back up their previously announced pledge not to allow the Jews to take Jaffa, a city of 95,000.

A Haganah commander said the British also conveyed armed Arab reinforcements into the city under eyes of the Jews who withheld their fire rather than risk a clash with the British.

A high Jewish authority said the British military now was inclined to favor withdrawal of British forces from the city if the Jews content themselves with gains already made. The informant said the Palestine government, on the other hand, was insisting that Jews be cleared from all Jaffa.

The Jewish militia, Haganah, rejected Irgun's suggestion that it advance its former gunpost line and take up new positions in the captured Manshieh quarter. Haganah yesterday attacked several Arab villages on the eastern and southeastern perimeter of Jaffa, but said the operation was not co-ordinated with Irgun's drive into the northern Manshieh quarter.

The planes which the British sent into today's fighting apparently were employed on reconnaissance missions. There was no indication they had dropped bombs or fired. Yesterday just before dusk a flight of Spitfires machinegunned Haganah positions in the village of Bat Yam just south of Jaffa.

ELSEWHERE in the second U. N. special assembly on Palestine: 1. Philip C. Jessup, United States, asked the assembly's political committee to approve quickly the U. S. trusteeship scheme for Palestine. He also declared the U. S. is standing on the plan. He thus threw down—and the delegation officially denied—published reports that the U. S. has changed policy on Palestine.

2. In the first concrete talk on trusteeship from the Arab side, Iraq suggested to the political committee that any Palestine trusteeship be limited to one or two years and that the question of Jewish immigration be held up until trusteeship ends.

3. The political committee of the assembly decided to begin tomorrow point-by-point discussion of the U. S. plan for a trusteeship.

Arabs Oppose Sending Troops Of U. N. to Guard Jerusalem

LAKE SUCCESS, April 29 (AP)—Arabs opposed today the idea of sending foreign troops under the United Nations flag to protect Jerusalem. This virtually killed efforts here to create an international police force for the Holy City.

Jewish representatives said "we definitely agree" to establishment of such a force.

Jamal Hussein, vice-chairman of the Arab higher committee, told the U. N. Trusteeship council that "we object to foreign troops being sent to Jerusalem." He said Arabs see no difference between foreign soldiers and foreign civilian volunteer police.

Roger Garreau, of France, sponsor of the plan to recruit 10,000 volunteers for the U. N. force, indicated he might withdraw it later. He said both Arabs and Jews must co-operate if the plan works out.

HUSSEIN'S STAND caused wide speculation here over the fate of the U. N. cease-fire agreement for the old walled city in Jerusalem.

The Arabs have accepted the Jewish agency for Palestine representative here, Moshe Shertok, said he still was waiting for the agency to confirm the limited truce to which he agreed yesterday. A Jewish agency spokesman in

Natural Causes Cited By Doctors in Death Of Society Matron

MIDDLETOWN, R. I., April 29 (AP)—A medical examiner reported tonight the death of Mrs. George Eustis Paine, New York society woman, was caused by "immersion, shock and exposure," with illness a contributing factor.

Dr. James C. Callahan said in a statement based on laboratory reports made today by Rhode Island State pathologist Dr. James T. Fallon that the 52-year-old matron "was found to be suffering from hemochromatosis, a disease involving the metabolism of iron in the body."

"As the disease progresses," Dr. Callahan said, "mental disturbances and depression sometime occur, which would account for Mrs. Paine's strange disappearance from home and her wanderings into the water of the beach."

Beware of Rodents! They're All Over—The Rats

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The word went out to all housewives today: Beware of rats. Even the best homes may have them.

Maybe you think if you live in a nice neighborhood you don't have to worry about rats.

Nonsense, says Miss Frieda Schicht, the world's leading lady rat killer and a consultant to the National Committee for Rat Control.

"Rats are everywhere," says Miss Schicht. "You don't have to go slumming to find rats. They're also in well-off neighborhoods."

Miss Schicht, in issuing her warning today, said the trouble is, most people take this attitude:

"Why I can't have rats. I haven't even seen one."

More nonsense, according to Miss S. If you wait until you meet a rat face to face (heaven forbid), you

Operators' Trustee Warns Banks Not to Honor Pension Checks

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Banks holding the United Mine Workers' $34,000,000 welfare and retirement fund were advised by coal operator Ezra Van Horn today they would honor pension checks at their own risk if his signature was lacking.

Van Horn, the operators' representative on the three-man board of trustees for the fund, sought to halt the transfer of $5,000,000 from the general fund to a pension account.

The transfer was one of the first steps undertaken by John L. Lewis of the UMW and Senator Bridges (R-NH) to carry out the compromise pension plan of April 12 which led to ending the six week coal strike. Lewis and Bridges are members of the board of trustees.

Van Horn opposed the settlement, and followed through by voting against all moves to put it into effect at trustee meetings Monday and Wednesday evenings.

HE ALREADY had petitioned the court to block any pension payments under the compromise. He contends the law requires that the employer representative must approve any payment plan.

The Bridges-Lewis settlement of April 12 would allow $100 a month for United Mine Workers over 62, with 20 years in the mines, who retired after May 29, 1946. The fund is accumulating from a 10-cent royalty on each ton of coal paid by the operators.

Van Horn wrote to the National Savings and Trust company, Washington, which has $33,000,000 of the fund piled up in its vaults, and to the Central National Bank of Cleveland, which has the other million dollars.

Later, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer and two other atomic scientists emerged from a conference with Mr. Truman and said that a prolonged dispute over confirmation of the atomic energy commissioners would cause atomic energy projects to suffer, "some desperately."

Oppenheimer said it would be a blow if scientists began leaving the projects. He would not discuss the meeting with Mr. Truman.

Two Women Are Indicted In California Baby Market

LOS ANGELES, April 29 (AP)—A county grand jury indicted two middle-aged women today on charges that they conspired to sell infants in what the district attorney earlier called a baby market.

The two—Mrs. Marie Chaplin, 51, Hollywood, and Mrs. Isabel Drucker, 53, Glendale—are charged with seven overt acts. After their arrest, District Attorney William Simpson said the two were suspected of selling the babies of unwed mothers to married couples.

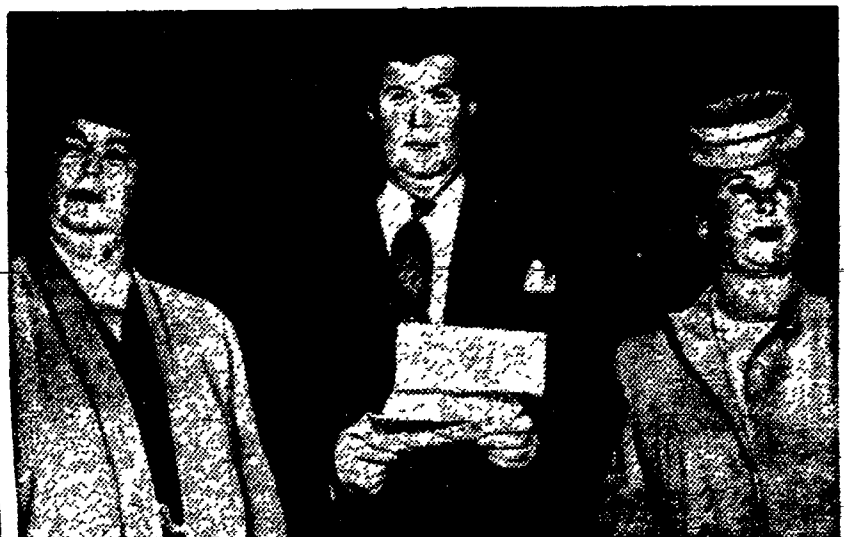

The indictment accuses them under a seldom used state law which prohibits the sale of human beings. It charges Mrs. Chaplin received $1000 from Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Birka of Burbank the past December in exchange for a baby, and $500 from Mr. and Mrs. William M. Martin, Inglewood, the past March in a similar transaction.

MRS. DRUCKER is accused of approaching a Glendale woman the past December in connection with the alleged market.

The two allegedly permitted expectant mothers to stay at their homes until time for them to enter hospitals. Simpson earlier told newsmen that the actual mothers were registered at the hospitals under the names of the prospective baby purchasers.

Both women are free under $3500 bond.

Nearby Communities Speed Proposals For Street Lights; Petitions Circulated

Plans for street-lighting in New Berlinville, Morysville and Gilbertsville are progressing rapidly, with some lights in Gilbertsville already in operation and adequate illumination asked for in the Berks communities.

Some lights along Gilbertsville streets were in service the past Wednesday and the balance of those planned was expected to be in use within the next few days.

When completed, Route 73, forming the main highway through the town, will be illuminated with new and more brilliant lights from the east borough line to the New Hanover township line. One light also will be placed on Route 73 below Mensch's garage at a point beyond the intersection with the Swamp pike.

Three lights will be installed on that portion of the road leading from Groff's store toward Congo and within Douglass township, whose supervisors have arranged for the new illumination. There also will be a light on the road leading from Groff's store in the direction of Englestown, while another will be placed at East Fourth street and Montgomery avenue, a residential section in Douglass township.

LIGHTING OF streets in the New Berlinville area moved one step forward the past week when Colebrookdale township supervisors, representatives of Metropolitan Edison company and property holders in the Berks town north of Boyertown borough line, met to air difficulties which had tied up the prospect of lighting.

Net effect of the meeting, attended by about 50 persons, was approval for circulating a new petition among property-holders, without any restrictions or reservations. Chief difficulty lay in costs.

Henry R. Werstler, spokesman for the supervisors, said that when the original petition for street lights in New Berlinville was presented, it contained the provision that costs were not to exceed five cents per foot. This, he contended, tied the hands of the supervisors because the board could not enter into such a contract with Metropolitan Edison company.

A SPOKESMAN for the power company said he would not recommend that the company enter into a contract where the supervisors were limited on the cost of lights and further that to secure adequate illumination, about eight cents per foot would be required.

"Adequate illumination" was defined as that of 250-candlepower controlled lens type lamps, similar to those in use of North Reading avenue.

Seniors to Speak at Commencement

Picked because of their superior scholastic accomplishments, four members of the Boyertown High school senior class will be student speakers at commencement exercises Thursday night, May 27. The quartet includes (left to right), Dolores Zern, Kenneth Nyce, Marguerite Leister and Henry Zajac.

Four Pupils Picked to Deliver Addresses At Boyertown High School Commencement

The names of four Boyertown High school seniors, selected as student commencement speakers on the basis of superior scholastic work done throughout their high school career, were announced recently by George B. Swinehart, supervising principal, and Lawrence E. Grim, high school principal. Commencement exercises are scheduled Thursday night, May 27.

They are Marguerite Leister, Kenneth Nyce, Henry Zajac and Dolores Zern. Miss Leister is a resident student, while Miss Zern, Nyce and Zajac are non-residents.

Both Miss Zern and Nyce plan to enter the teaching profession, while Miss Leister expects to enter a nurses training school and Zajac, the senior class president, plans to enter the field of agriculture.

MISS LEISTER, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. Leister, 528 East Fourth street, Boyertown, is an academic student. She attended Washington elementary school in the borough before going to the high school.

She is literary editor of "1948 Bear," high school yearbook, having been a staff member for the past three years. She is a member of Quill and Scroll, International honorary high school journalism society, the marching band, Tri-Hi-Y club, of which she was treasurer, in her junior year and secretary the past year.

She is a member of St. John's Lutheran league and the church chapel choir and for several years has been active in the Boyertown Civil Air patrol. Nyce, who has just completed two years as editor-in-chief of "The Cub," student newspaper, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Nyce, of Bechtelsville.

BEFORE ENROLLING in Boyertown High school in 1944, Nyce attended Hathfield consolidated school, Hatfield, and Weistown school, near Weiss Curve. Also a student in the academic curriculum, Nyce is president of George B. Swinehart chapter, Future Teachers of America, and a member of Quill and Scroll and Current Events club. The high school journalist plans to become a social studies teacher.

Zajac, a student of the vocational agriculture curriculum of the high school, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zajac, Gilbertsville. Before coming to Boyertown High, he was a pupil in Gilbertsville consolidated school. He was named by fellow-members of the high school as the king of hearts at a Valentine dance sponsored by Tri-Hi-Y club the past February in the school gymnasium.

Miss Zern, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Zern, Bechtelsville, is a student in the commercial curriculum. She plans to become a commercial teacher in the public schools.

Also a student journalist, Miss Zern is a member of the editorial staff of "The Cub" and of Quill and Scroll. She has participated in both vocal and instrumental music activities at the high school, serving in the glee club, senior chorus and as a pianist.

$2125 Collected In YMCA Campaign

"Very encouraging" was the description which YMCA officials used in characterizing the first report night held the past Tuesday in Boyer Towne Inn in the current maintenance fund drive.

Totals for the night showed $2125 contributed by 147 individuals and businesses from the goals of 450 contributors and a total of $4875.

The personal solicitation phase of the drive will come to a close Tuesday night, according to Henry R. Carchner, resident executive secretary of Boyertown and vicinity YMCA movement. Carchner will receive reports at Boyer Towne Inn tonight from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, and also on Tuesday night.

CLASS SPONSORS DANCE
Members of the sophomore class of Boyertown High school will entertain at a dance entitled "Moonlight Sail" tonight in the high school gymnasium.

Two Youths Nabbed After Station Robbery

LEECHBURG, April 29 (AP)—State police reported today they captured two youths who robbed a gas station near here, within 25 minutes after the robbery took place.

State police cars from Kittanning, Butler, Indiana and Greensburg converged on the scene after hearing of the robbery on the State police two-way radio hookup.

Sgt. Albin Knudson said the fugitives were spotted, five miles east of Kittanning, about 20 miles from the gas station. When the car refused to stop Pvt. Lawrence Nee fired a rifle at the car. It stopped.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

Funeral services for MRS. DEBORAH C. (YODER) DUNLAP, 80, an aunt of Mrs. Harry Park, 363 West Philadelphia avenue, were held from a Reading funeral home the past Wednesday. The late Mrs. Dunlap, of OCEAN GROVE, N. J., was the widow of William P. Dunlap, and from 1941 to 1947 she spent part of the year in Boyertown with her niece.

She was a member of the auxiliary of Pottstown hospital and she attended the Trinity Evangelical Congregational church, Boyertown, while here. She was a native of Pleasantville.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond H. of Ocean Grove, N. J., and Carroll R. of Milwaukee, Wis.; three sisters, five brothers, and three grandchildren.

Interment was made in Charles Evans cemetery, Reading.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED

NATRONA, April 29 (AP)—The bodies of two coal miners, who drowned while fishing April 17 in the Allegheny river were recovered today.

Crosses dating from the 5th century have been found on the British Isle of Man.

New Pastor Appointed For Zion's Church

The Rev. Gerald R. Hertzog, of Allentown, was named to the pastorate of Zion's Evangelical United Brethren church, New Berlinville, at the closing session of the 109th annual East Pennsylvania conference of the denomination held in Reading.

He will replace the Rev. Charles V. Kachel, who has been named to a Pottstown church. The Rev. Hertzog is a senior at Albright college, Reading. He will assume his duties in New Berlinville Sunday.

Co-owner of Cafe Shot; Police Seek Partner

PHILADELPHIA, April 29 (AP)—George Gutzler, 41-year-old partner of a West Philadelphia cafe, was shot and wounded seriously today during an argument.

Police said the assailant fled but Gutzler's partner, John Barrett, 37, was sought for questioning.

Gutzler was struck in the chest. St. Louis was established as a fur trading post in 1784 by Pierre LaCade.

PSHS May Queen to Be Revealed Tonight At Annual Sophomore-Junior Coronation

First Spring Hike Enjoyed by Scouts Of Lutheran Church

Begging off from choir practice, music lessons and skipping household chores was no uncommon occurrence yesterday afternoon by the scouts of Troop 4 of Grace Lutheran church, as they prepared for their first spring hike to the home of their assistant leader, Mrs. Walter Dames, Ringing Hill.

The 18 girls braved the raw April weather with spirits high, for a hot spaghetti dinner was the prize at the end of the long trek.

Seated at picnic tables by a tiny stream, the girls were served by the scout leader, Miss Mildred Geist and Mrs. Dames. Games were played and songs were sung.

Mr. Walter Dames was the special guest of the group, while scouts attending were Dena and Carol Nevenesch, Janet Ziegenfuss, Barbara Longacre, Ruth Gruff, Doris Reese, Lynn Yerger, Jane Barndt, Nancy Wilhelm, Alice Hall, Anna Irene Kopper, Dorothy Berkhimer, Grace Meyer, Marion Rife, Shirley Drumheller, Alice Erb, Beatrice Gehris and June and Arlene Houck.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that until further notice, the next meeting date will be May 20, at which time a covered dish social is planned.

Two new members were admitted to Girl Scout Troop 10 when they met last night in Trinity Reformed church. The girls were Jacqueline Mauger and Nancy Reider.

Following the calling of the roll, the girls went on a hike to the Robinson Clay products company with several side excursions into the valleys to pick spring flowers. After returning to the church the girls played games until time to close the meeting.

Leaders present were Mrs. Opal Haurey, Mrs. Sara Wagner and Mrs. George Royer.

At the regular meeting of the Seneca girls scouts, troop 20 in the Grange hall, plans were discussed for their Mother's Day program and small gifts were made to present to their mothers.

THE GIRLS ALSO discussed the hayride which they held Saturday night from 8 until 11 o'clock with more than 20 members attending. Guests included William Bechtel, Bobby Snell, James Smale, Franklin Remington, Jack Bable and Gene Wistler. Mr. Paul Morton was the driver of the tractor which hauled the load of hay.

Fourteen girls as well as their leaders, Mrs. Amanda Rogers and Mrs. Kenneth Bucherts, were present.

If pockets on Junior's trousers or Dad's work clothes tear at the top corners, attach them with a diagonal stitch when they are new. Start from the top corner and proceed southeast or westward as the case may be for a ¼ or ½ inch and then straight down until it meets the first cross row of stitching.

"Call me early, Mother dear, for I'm to be Queen of the May."
Only, Pottstown Senior High school's May Queen couldn't chant the old refrain this morning. Her identity will not be revealed until 11 o'clock tonight, at the school's annual Sophomore-Junior May Day dance, to be held in the high school gymnasium.

The coronation will be the climax of the evening's gaiety, as the school's smart young set dances to the strains of Wally Spotts' orchestra, under pastel-colored streamers.

DURING THE PAST week, members of the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes voted for the prettiest and most popular girls, and seven were chosen later, by general balloting, for the Court of Honor.

Tonight, one member of that court will be named May Queen. The Senior girl who received the largest number of votes will be given the honor.

And it will be one of these Seniors—Daisy Goodyear, Kitty Lou Schmeier or Phyllis Snell. The other two Seniors will be in her court, as well as Juniors Bonnie Swinehart and Joan Towers, and Sophomores Joan Smith and Bobbie Schmeier.

TONIGHT ALL THE girls will be dressed informally in street clothes. But at 10:45, the seven Court members will leave the dance floor.

They will change into formal dress and make their entrance back into the colorfully decorated gymnasium at 11 p. m.

Then, and only then, will the luckiest girl in school, the May Queen, be revealed in her youthful charm and beauty.

The dancing, which will begin at 8:30 p. m., then will continue until midnight.

Rose Marie Boughter, president of the Junior class, will be in charge of tonight's festivities, while Bertam P. Scanlin will head the program and ticket committee, Mrs. Mildred Hutt the May Queen selection committee, Glenn Turner the publicity committee, and Miss Frances Zimmerman the decorations committee.

HELPING with the decorations will be Patty Kinzer, Dolores Bauer, Donald Frey, Harry DeWalt, John Kish, Richard Spare, David Bleacher, Sally Hall, Peggy Spota, Mary Jane Oakes, Irene Corbett and Phyllis Grow.

The coronation committee will include Joan Fulmer, Rose Boughter, Dottie Matthews, Joan Mayer, David Miller, David Bleacher, David Towers, Richard Bechtel, Bonnie Swinehart and Pat McDonald.

On the orchestra and program committee are Louise Shaner, Richard Hatfield, Rodney Jacobs and Kenneth Hughes.

Handling publicity and ticket sales are Irene Corbett, Gerry Marchione, Mary Jane Oakes and Alice Brownback.

Who Is the Queen?

—Mercury Staff Photo by Eugene Orlando

Pictured above is the queen and her court of the annual May day dance scheduled to take place tonight in the Pottstown Senior high school. From the bery of beauties above will be selected the queen who will be crowned during the coronation exercises tonight. The other girls will be members of her court. Students voted for the queen earlier in the week, but no one will know the outcome of the voting until the coronation. The girls are (clockwise, from front): Joan Towers, Roberta Schmeier, Phyllis Snell, Bonnie Swinehart, Kitty Lou Schmeier and Joan Smith. The center girl is Daisy Goodyear.

Local Artist Picks Color Scheme for Soroptimist Play

Pink and grey will be the scenic coloring for "One For The Money," three-act comedy to be presented in the Senior High school auditorium by the Soroptimist club on Thursday night, May 13, it was announced by Mrs. Evelyn Humphrey, local artist who is in charge of the stage settings.

Mrs. Humphrey, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Manthorne, director of the play, and Stanley I Davenport Jr., vice principal of the high school, inspected the stage Wednesday afternoon and made the selection of scenery.

Several of Mrs. Humphrey's paintings, including a still life, will be added to the setting for that "homey" touch. Turquoise drapes will be fashioned by Mrs. Humphrey to blend with the pink and grey of the scenery.

Stage furniture will be selected by Mrs. Humphrey and her committee member, Miss Elsie Liss, at an early date from a local furniture house.

Mrs. Manthorne has announced that Miss Alice Yocum, who has been an understudy to the juvenile lead, will replace Miss Betty Zueno in that role.

Mr. Marie Dengler, local beautician, will arrange the hair styling of the female leads. Mrs. Dengler, who plays a comedy role, is also chairman of the make-up committee and a member of the Soroptimist club.

The following committees have been chosen from the membership of the Manthorne players: Stage, Earl Feight and Robert Mathews; costume, Eunice Feight and Ida Placido; ushers, Miss Zueno and Judy Jones.

Members of the Soroptimist club who will act as ushers are: Miss Ruth Benfield, Mrs. Evelyn Applegate, Mrs. Gladys Dwyer, Mrs. Alyce Willauer, Mrs. Gladys Marquette, Mrs. Mary Overholzer, Mrs. Margaret Fray, Mrs. Dorothy Sands and Miss Liss.

Miss Janice Lenhart (above), daughter of Mr. Harry Lenhart, Gilbertsville, will become the bride Sunday of Mr. Robert Gilbert, son of Mr. Ephraim Gilbert, Bechtelsville RD 1.

Wisconsin Girl Becomes Bride of John Sprague

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Mr. John Sprague, son of the late Benjamin and Mrs. Alice Sprague, to Miss Alice Watson, of Medford, Wis. The ceremony took place in Bel-Air, Md., the past Monday and was performed by the Rev. A. E. Switzer.

The bride is a registered nurse and was graduated from St. Mary's hospital, Madison, Wis., and more recently became associated with a Philadelphia hospital. Her father, Dr. Edward Watson, died recently.

Until seven years ago the Spragues resided in Pottstown, and prior to that in Collegeville. The couple will now live in Philadelphia.

Sociology Professor To Address YWCA on Annual Election Night

The reception and annual election of officers of the Young Women's Christian association will be held Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock in the club rooms of the building. Dr. Frank D. Watson, professor of Sociology at Haverford college will speak on "How Can We Strengthen the American Family."

Directors to be re-elected are Miss Dorothy Barkel, Miss Ida W. Faust, Mrs. Ernest V. Hunter and Mrs. A. Joseph Prince, while those named for new directors to be elected are Mrs. Calvin Cressman, Miss A. Edna Hutt and Mrs. Harry C. Shope.

Following the elections short reports on the activities of the YWCA for the past year will also be given. The house and hospital committee will be in charge of the reception. Mrs. Charles J. Lepper, chairman, with Mrs. Raymond Delter, Mrs. Ernest Kulp, Mrs. Richard Potts and Mrs. Robert G. Weller.

Mrs. Albert Kessler, chairman of the education committee and her members, Miss Florence E. Decker, Miss Ida Faust and Mrs. Kulp obtained the speaker of the evening.

The meeting will be open to the public, however only members will be allowed to cast their ballots for directors.

PERSONALS

Mrs. William C. Brookhuken, Garden City, N. Y., returned to her home after an extended visit with her uncle, Mr. Samuel H. Porter, 547 High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil St. Onge, Boyertown road, entertained Mrs. Albert Wampler, York; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones, Media, and Miss Vivian St. Onge recently.

Merle Fischer Weds Florence I. LaMont In Alexandria, Va.

Miss Florence I. LaMont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. LaMont, of Alexandria, Va., and Newburgh, N. Y., became the bride of Merle L. Fisher, son of Mrs. Daniel Fisher, Pottstown RD 4, in a ceremony performed in St. Rita's rectory, Alexandria. The Rev. W. D. McGonigal performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of many relatives and friends.

The bride wore a suit of Azure blue with brown accessories and a corsage of white orchids. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Dolores LaMont, who was attired in a navy blue suit with navy and beige accessories and wore a corsage of talisman roses. The best man was Van W. Fisher, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left on a tour of the Southern states. Upon their return the couple will be at home at 235 Regent street, Hampton, Va., where the bridegroom is employed as assistant plant superintendent of the Virginia Electric Power company.

The bride is a graduate of Newburgh academy and has been employed for the past six years by the government in Washington, D. C. Mr. Fisher attended Pottstown schools and was graduated from Williamson Trade school. He served in the war as a lieutenant commander in the Merchant Marine and spent two and a half years overseas.

Crackers with a mild cheese spread makes good fare, along with milk, for after-school appetites. Another good cracker spread is made by combining peanut butter with chopped raisins.

Miss Florence I. LaMont, of Alexandria, Va., and Newburgh, N. Y., became the bride April 10 of Mr. Merle L. Fisher, son of Mrs. Daniel Fisher, Pottstown RD 4, in Alexandria. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. LaMont.

Surprise Baby Shower Staged in St. Onge Home

A baby surprise shower was given in honor of Mrs. Myrtle Kunkel by Mrs. Nora E. St. Onge in her home on the Boyertown road.

A baby basketette trimmed in blue and pink crepe paper and filled with gifts was presented to the honored guest.

Those attending were Mrs. Alma Wynings, Mrs. Lillian Fisher, Mrs. Agnes Keen and Mrs. June Frech.

Mrs. Annie Argue Feled On Birthday Anniversary

Her protests and questions about being brought downstairs ended when Mrs. Annie Argue, 439 Chestnut street, who has been bedridden for several weeks, discovered last night that she was being feted at a party in honor of her 70th birthday anniversary.

She came into the living room on the arm of her daughter, Mrs. William Diemer, of Collingswood, N. J., who made the trip especially for the party.

The appreciative celebrant received many lovely gifts, and was honored with four birthday cakes, which formed a centerpiece of pink, blue, yellow, white and tan on the table.

Master Gary Hurter, a great grandson, entertained the group by playing several selections on the piano.

Other guests included her daughter, Mrs. Florence Connelly, a son, Mr. Frank Argue and his wife; Mrs. Sara Vanish, Mrs. Joseph Mazza, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hurter and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurter and Mrs. Amelia Gibb, of Royersford.

St. James Group Meets In South Street Home

Mrs. Eleanor Fillman, 1017 South street, entertained members of the Ruth Keppel circle of St. James Lutheran church at her home recently, with all members bringing parts of a baby's layette to be shipped overseas.

Members also decided to by a collection of India lace from foreign missions. The women of the group purchase thread and give it to foreign missions to be distributed to workers. As the workers are hearing the stories of the missionaries and learning the Christian way of life, they work on the lace which adds greatly to the mission fund.

Those in the group also decided to send a birthday gift to Missionary Ruth Keppel in Monrovia, Liberia, for whom the circle is named. Attending were Mrs. Doris Allen, Mrs. Betty Tuffenberger, Miss Eleanor Rachild, Mrs. Gene Klaus and Mrs. Elaine Richards.

Almonds that have been blanched, cut in thin strips and then toasted are an excellent topping for any creamed dish.

Mrs. Robert Gray Holds Junior Activity Meeting

Mrs. J. Robert Gray, 222 Chestnut street, general chairman of Junior activities of the Brookside Country club, last night held a meeting of those on her committee of arrangements for the Junior tea dance to be held at the club next Thursday from 4 to 7 o'clock.

A special program is being arranged for the occasion with music to be furnished by Paul Hoffman and his orchestra.

Committee members present were: Charles Baylor Jr., Robert Malson Jr., Charles Scholz Jr., Richard Jameson, Robert Gray, Bonnie Ash and Maria MacPhail.

Mary Grace Murray To Become Bride

Before several friends and relatives in Coventry Brethren church, Miss Mary Grace Murray will become the bride of Mr. David C. Yocum tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Glen E. Norris, uncle of the bride and pastor at Ambler Brethren church, officiating.

Miss Murray is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Pottstown RD 2, while Mr. Yocum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Yocum, Douglassville RD 1.

Miss Myrtle Fritz has been chosen as maid of honor while Miss Gladys Yocum, sister of the groom and Miss Margaret Bilger will be the bridesmaids. Miss Dorothy Davis will be the flower girl while Mr. Larry Davis will be the ring bearer.

Surprise Bridal Shower Honor Limerick Couple

A surprise bridal shower was held for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidenbaugh Jr. of Limerick recently with the newly-weds receiving many attractive gifts. The party was held in their new home, where refreshments were served by the guests.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolfgang, and daughters, Ruth, Jane and Arlene; Mr. Harry Weidenbaugh Sr., Miss Hazel Weidenbaugh, Mrs. Harold Krasley Sr., Miss Phyllis Krasley, Mrs. Harold Krasley Jr., Mrs. Ethel Darragh, Mrs. John Burns, Mrs. Irma Kline, Miss Jeanne Kline, Mrs. Henry Slawewski, Miss Shirley Ermswiler and Miss Edith Krasley.

Church Guild Postpones Installation of Officers

Installation of officers of the Mother's guild of Seales Memorial Methodist church, scheduled to take place Tuesday night, was postponed until the following month because of the inability of the president to be present.

At the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Roland Johnson, Winding road, Mrs. Elmer Yahn, vice president, presided. Plans were completed for the Mother's Day services in the church on May 9. At that time the guild will be in charge with a mother's guild to be featured with their sister daughters to act as ushers. Mrs. Jesse Mengel will be in charge of the program.

Doe Club Members Hear Capt. Meral Cox Speak

In speaking on "To Be Truly An American," Capt. Meral Cox declared to members of the Doe Club at their regular meeting last night in the Elks' home, that one must have an upright character, pointing out that character is above brilliance, money, power or career.

He pointed out that Washington, in taking the oath for presidency of the United States, kissed the Bible because he believed and loved the Christian life.

During the business session at which Mrs. Nellie Koury presided, plans were started for the annual mother-daughters banquet to be held May 13 at 7 o'clock in the form of a covered dish social.

Next Thursday the Doe Club members will journey to Valley Forge where the cast will present the variety show which played at the Elks' club. Five dollar donations were given to the Lions club camp fund drive and to the cancer drive.

Advice to the Lovelorn
Once Unfaithful, Can He Be Trusted?

Is it possible for a wife to trust her husband again after he has been unfaithful to her?

That is the question asked by a woman who writes the following letter:

"My husband cheated on me and we separated. We are now back together again, but I find it awfully hard to get back the trust I once had in him.

"He did not tell me anything about the affair he had, saying only that it is over with and he is glad we are together again. I do not mean to ask him where he has been or with whom, but while he is away working, I wonder whether he is being true to me or not, and when he comes home I start asking questions. I know that this constant questioning is causing him to feel indifferent.

"I love my husband very much and would like to remain married to him, but I am afraid that the way I feel will make us drift further apart."

"Do you think once someone has cheated on you, you can ever trust him again?"

WHAT I THINK is that since this wife decided to be reconciled with her husband and take up life with him again, she should at the same time resolve not to question him or appear to be suspicious.

This is a hard thing to do. Under all the circumstances, she would be more than human if she could at once trust him again.

There is a big difference, however, between having doubts and giving voice to them. One cannot control the first; one can control the second.

Hard as it is, it would be perfectly possible, and very wise, for this wife to behave as though she had complete confidence in her husband's loyalty. This is not only the one way in which she can begin to make a happy home again, but it is also the only way in which her faith can build itself up once more. If she acts as though the thing in which she wishes to believe—her husband's loyalty, were actually a fact, she will go far towards making it so. It is far more difficult for a husband, or anybody else, to let down the person who trusts him than it is to try and deceive one who is constantly suspicious that he will do just that.

To answer the specific question as to whether or not I think one can ever trust again after having been deceived, I would say Yes, I do think so. I think it might be a long time before that faith could be fully restored, but I think it is altogether possible if both wife and husband are sincerely trying to bring it about.

The Romans used iron betrothal rings as early as the second century B. C.

FIRST Communion Special

Sometime or other in our lives, we sit and ponder over the most happy occasions of our childhood days. In our search for these pleasant memories, we often find that we had overlooked one important fact and that is we failed to have a permanent record made of the joyous event. Now as first communion season approaches, what could be more fitting than a life time portrait of this great and solemn occasion? Perhaps you have a boy or girl making their final preparations for one of the greatest days in their lives, so why not bring them into our studio and have it recorded permanently. In order to make it easier to do this, we are offering our great first communion special:

1-Beautiful 8x10 SILVERTONE PORTRAIT

Ready for Framing $1.00
For Only

This is a regular $3.00 value and we give you a selection of proofs to choose from. No red tape or strings attached to this offer. Just bring this ad with you regardless of when or what day your child is receiving. This offer is valid during the entire first communion season. Before you lay this paper aside, cut out this ad and hold it until the day your child or children receive, then bring it to our studio and you will be entitled to this big special. Last, but not least, be sure to record this great day with a photograph by

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Assess, Add, Subtract. SUCCESSFUL play in certain contracts involves 'simple' but definite mathematical procedure. First assess or estimate the length of certain suits indicated by the bidding of the opponents. Second add for the presumed length of those suits together. Third subtract that figure from thirteen to get the number of cards in the remaining suit or suits. That process may indicate a hopeful play for the objective which would appear unattainable without it.

A dozen clubs to double the 2-Club bid—adding the way.

Adding up either East and West placed each with three diamonds. For West six cards in clubs and four in spades, plus none in hearts would leave three diamonds. For East, seven hearts, one spade and two clubs would leave three for diamonds. So South based his playing plan on that premise.

Winning the club lead with the A, he scored the spade A and Q and diamond A, led to the spade K and scored the diamond K for a heart discard, then led the diamond 8, hoping both defenders would follow while he ruffed. They did. Then he led the spade 8 to the J, discarding the heart 8 from dummy. West had no good return left. He picked the club Q, which the K won. The heart 10 to the A and three established diamonds then brought him safely into port.

After the club 5 was led and South surveyed the dummy, he noted that his task was no cinch. West was marked with at least four spades, to double with so little high card strength out. East probably would not have ventured that vulnerable overall with only six hearts and such a dearth of honors, so probably had seven, with West blank. And West must have had a half

(Dealer: North. North-South vulnerable.)

South having reached 6-Hearts after bidding which included diamonds and cue-bids of both black suits, why should West not double?

Man Spurns Assistance As Fire Levels House

WACO, Tex., April 29 (AP)—J. T. Soleman, 74-year-old bachelor, said today he was doing all right fighting a fire in his room until some women came to help him.

"Women make me nervous, so I quit," Soleman said.

The building, a 12-room rooming house, was a total loss.

Personalities in the News

REP. HARDIE SCOTT (R-Pa.) escaped injury recently when a heavy steel plate being unloaded from a ship crashed to a Philadelphia pier as the Congressman was addressing a rally of harbor workers.

Taking advantage of the situation, Scott told the rally: "What I have seen here today proves beyond any doubt that the bill which I am sponsoring is nothing more than mere justice to these men who labor under such dangerous conditions."

TWO IOWA residents, Henry Wallace's home state, probably thought the third party candidate for President needed a rousing welcome as he stumped for votes in the coming election.

As he arrived in Iowa City for his initial speech, two eggs were thrown at him.

Both missed. However, a couple of bystanders, both girls, were struck by the flying chicken products but no one was injured.

EZEKIEL MARTIN, a Nashville, Tenn., drayman was giving his team of horses a severe tongue lashing after they had bolted down the street while hitched to his junk wagon.

With a final gesture of disgust, Martin approached the wagon. The nearest horse kicked him in the face.

Martin was taken to the hospital realizing the hard way that he may have insulted the "dumb" animals just a wee bit too much.

DURING THE recent House squabble over the bill to repeal federal taxes on oleo, Rep. Abernethy (D-Miss) pondered as he heard one Republican Congressman lash out with:

"You poor saps, I want to pay my compliments to the sap Republicans. The New Deal Congress had 16 years to do something about this, and it was too hot for them."

Finally, Abernethy arose, looked around and blurted: "Are you about ready to declare war?"

EMIL RIEVE
... has secret choice

EMIL RIEVE, president of the CIO Textile Workers, has a secret Republican candidate for President who he says will be acceptable to labor.

He won't name the man but says it is neither Sen. Robert A. Taft, Gov. Thomas Dewey or former Gov. Harold E. Stassen.

Rieve has his own ideas about the candidates: Eisenhower: "I really don't know what Eisenhower stands for, his record is blank. But I would take a chance on him."

Vandenberg: "He did a good job of steering the Marshall plan through Congress. But his domestic record is worse than Taft's."

MacArthur: "Hearst on a white horse."

Warren: "The great what-is-it from the West."

Wallace: "A tool of the Communists."

Rieve has been advocating that President Truman withdraw from the race.

The puzzle lingers.

Mary Jayne is to receive $1250 a week. The contract will stretch over a seven year period.

GRAIG RICE, Hollywood story writer, lost two dollars to the city of Santa Monica, Calif., and her husband-to-be Henry W. Demott, lost two dollars to the county.

After the couple had secured a two dollar marriage license, for which Demott forked over, Miss Rice was caught for a minor traffic violation and she also was relieved of two dollars.

Probe of School System Rejected by Committee

HARRISBURG, April 29 (P)—The executive committee of the joint State government commission declined today to investigate methods of education used in Philadelphia's public schools.

Senator Weldon B. Heyburn (R-Delaware), commission chairman, said the group "would not undertake a project of this magnitude without first receiving a request from the Legislature."

The investigation was asked by Judges Byron A. Milner and Grover C. Ladner, of Philadelphia, into what they termed "the manner in which the schools are administered."

Reyburn told a news conference that several of the subjects contained in the request were already being considered by sub-committees of the commission.

New York Stock Exchange Strike Ends; Workers Return Under Company Conditions

NEW YORK, April 29 (P)—Striking financial workers returned today to the New York Stock Exchange on terms originally offered by the financial institution. There were 100 fewer jobs waiting than when they walked out a month ago.

The use of lie-down tactics to block the exchange entrance and a brief but bruising battle between police and pickets lifted the strike to national prominence.

The new technique involved pickets stretching themselves out in front of the exchange doorway. Fists flew and nightsticks swung as police broke up the lie-down on the world's most moneyed streets. Most of the prone pickets were AFL seamen who joined the financial workers' lines.

The stock exchange functioned in near-normal manner throughout the strike despite some of the heaviest trading days in recent months.

MAYOR WILLIAM O'Dwyer's assurance to the members of the AFL United Financial employees that he would investigate their wage situation brought a union vote to return about two hours before the market opened this morning.

The strikers gained wage increases ranging from $3 to $5 a week.

The union had asked weekly increases of $9 for employees earning less than $40 a week and $15 for those earning more. Later the demands were scaled down to $6 and $10.

The stock exchange offer accepted today provided $3 weekly for those earning up to $49. $4 for those earning between $50 and $75 and $5 weekly for those earning more than $74.

THAT WAS the original offer the exchange made during pre-strike negotiations.

The 100 jobs eliminated resulted from a streamlining of exchange operations to meet the strike emergency—changes that exchange spokesmen said were based on more efficient operation.

125 Workmen Paint House in Record Time

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 28 (P)—A two-story house was painted last night in five minutes, 40 seconds. The painters called it a new world's record. The job normally requires 57 man hours.

It was done by 125 painters as a feature of the city's cleanup week. They were cheered on by about 3500 spectators and a band after completing their regular day's work.

Apprentice painters will apply the second coat tomorrow.
